

Department of Planning and Natural Resources Vacancy Announcement Librarian I

The Department of Planning and Natural Resources is attempting to fill the position of Librarian I.

JOB DEFINITION

An individual in this position requires advanced professional knowledge of the theories, skills and techniques of library science and management for use in a library. The individual is required to perform specialized library functions and may thus possess knowledge of basic principles, theories, practice, terminology and expressions of a discipline or specialized subject-matter areas such as materials on the Caribbean and V.I. Documents. Specialization in either of the areas of technical services or cataloging, systems, children's and young adult librarianship; Special collections or public services will be required.

REQUIRED EDUCATION

A Master's degree in Library Science is required.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Resumes should be submitted to Celia Jackson-Williams, Personnel Relations Administrator via mail: 8100 Lindberg Bay, Ste. #61, Cyril E. King Airport, Terminal Bldg., Second Floor, St. Thomas, VI 00802; or via email to celia.jackson-williams@dpr.vi.gov; Telephone Number is (340) 774-3320

This position is posted until a candidate can be identified.